

Emerald Point Wet 'n Wild - Swim Team Outing

Thursday, June 28, 2012

Park Hours 10:00am – 6:00pm

Travel Time Approximately 1 hr. 20 min

Mark your calendars and save the date for a fun time with family and friends at Emerald Point Wet 'n Wild in Greensboro! Wet 'n Wild is the largest water park in the Carolina's and is located in Greensboro. For very informative park information, including what you can and cannot bring, visit: <http://www.emeraldpointe.com/pages/information.html>

TICKETS

After looking into group pricing, we have found the limited rain check policy and the fact there are no refunds to be too restrictive and will not be purchasing group tickets. Although the discount structure is nice, we discontinued organizing this event in the past due to the difficulty in getting commitment, collecting payment, and also being locked into the date regardless of the weather forecast. However, the kids have missed this event! We saw no reason why we couldn't at least offer a date for our community to gather together.

We are communicating this information early, though, since there are other discounting options available and we wanted to bring this to your attention as soon as possible:

- If you plan on visiting Wet n' Wild more than once, it may make sense to look into purchasing an "Any Day Season Pass" which at the time of this printing was discounted to the point where it paid for itself with just two visits. See this website for more information: <http://www.emeraldpointe.com/pages/pricing.html>
- Does your company offer discounted tickets? Visit here for a list of companies: <http://www.emeraldpointe.com/pages/corporate.html>
- Sometimes other promotions are offered – for example, in 2009, you received $4 off each ticket in your party up to 4 or 6 people when showing a Food Lion MVP card at the gate.

SUPERVISION REQUIRED

Wet n' Wild is a BIG PARK! Please plan on attending with your child(ren). If you cannot attend, but would like your child to go, please work transportation out with another parent in advance. We expect each driver to be responsible for the children in their car. No other supervision is available. Although we would love for everyone to hang out together, the reality is that it's not possible due to the different age groups, interest levels, and sheer size of the water park. But we will be meeting for lunch! Please meet the coaches at the picnic tables near the entrance. You do not need to exit the park to enter this area. Please note: we will not be meeting at Scottish Hills parking lot to caravan so please be sure your transportation is confirmed in advance.
